CITIZEN COMMENTS/PRESENTATIONS

President Munao asked if any residents wanted to address the Board.

Resident Alfred Saller, 24 Chaco Court, referred to his letter written to the Village and asked if there had been any progress in landscape issues and the question of the park structure at the new SBPD park site by The Regency. President Munao noted that when asked at Board meetings, the Regency negotiators seemed to think things were progressing, but that now negotiations seem at a standstill. Mr. Saller noted that the SBPD has said that the Village has approved the new park. President Munao clarified that the Village approved a preliminary plan, but that the park still requires final approval.

BACOG REPORT

President Munao referred to the BACOG monthly report that is distributed to the Trustees; there were no questions or comments.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT REPORT

President Munao noted that he continues to attend classes.
